Workshop Objectives:

ACER will present the content and questions of its public consultation on the proposal for a harmonised cross-zonal capacity allocation methodology and the Regional Coordination Centres (RCCs) tasks of sizing and procurement and will answer to stakeholders' questions related to this public consultation.

ACER's decisions on these proposals should facilitate the integration of balancing capacity markets, create welfare and lower procurement costs of balancing capacity while ensuring security of supply.

ACER will assess the proposals received and revise them where necessary to ensure their contribution to market integration, non-discrimination, proper functioning of electricity markets, and
