  a) the part of Article 1(b) of Annex I to the Contested Decision that amends the definition of “member TSO” in Article 2(1)(k) INIF (formerly Article 2(1)(j) of Annex I to Decision 13/2020);
  b) recital 134 of the Contested Decision, to the extent it refers to amending the definition of “member TSO” in Article 2(1)(k) INIF (formerly Article 2(1)(j) of Annex I to Decision 13/2020); and
  c) any other recital of the Contested Decision referring to the amendment to the definition of “member TSO”.

The Appellant makes a request for an oral hearing.

Pleas in law and main arguments
The Appellant’s claims and arguments can be summarised as follows:

1. The Contested Decision infringes Article 22 of Commission Regulation (EU) 2017/2195 of 23 November 2017 establishing a guideline on electricity balancing (“EBR”), as ACER lacks the competence to exclude the Appellant from being a member of, and a participant in, the Imbalance Netting Platform (“IN Platform”).

3. ACER lacks the competence to approve an amendment to the definition of “member TSO” in the INIF in the absence of a proposal from the TSOs to this effect.

4. ACER unlawfully exercised its power to revise All TSOs’ proposal of 31 March 2022 for amendments to the INIF (the Proposal) because it failed to consider whether introducing an amendment to the definition of “member TSO” meets the standard of necessity imposed by Article 5(6) ACER Regulation and 5(1) EBR.

5. ACER acted outside its competence to “revise” by supplementing the Proposal with an element that is not related to the subject-matter of the Proposal.

6. The Contested Decision is vitiated by ACER’s failure to afford the Appellant the right to be heard pursuant to Article 14 ACER Regulation and Article 41(2)(c) of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU (“CFREU”).

7. The Contested Decision infringes Article 14(7) ACER Regulation, Article 296 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and Article 41(2)(c) CFREU by failing to provide an adequate statement of reasons.

8. The Contested Decision contravenes the principle of protection of legitimate expectations as it constitutes the retroactive withdrawal of a measure which had conferred individual rights or similar benefits on the Appellant.
