Reference number: ACER/2023/06

Position (job title):	Policy Officer - Market Conduct
Department / Team:	Market Surveillance and Conduct Department
Function Group / Grade:	Temporary Staff AD7
Contract duration	5 years (with possibility of renewal)
Location:	Ljubljana, Slovenia
Starting date:	January 2024
Closing date for applications:	7 November 2023, 12:00 (noon) Ljubljana time

1. WE ARE

The European Union Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (hereinafter referred to as “ACER”) is a European Union (“EU”) body, legally established by Regulation (EU) No 2019/942¹ and operational since 2011. ACER is central to the integration and well-functioning of the EU's electricity and natural gas markets.

The purpose of ACER is to assist National Regulatory Authorities (“NRAs”) in exercising, at Union level, the regulatory tasks that they perform in the Member States and, where necessary, to coordinate their action, and to mediate and settle disagreements between them. ACER shall also contribute to the establishment of high-quality common regulatory and supervisory practices, thus contributing to the consistent, efficient and effective application of Union law in order to achieve the Union's climate and energy goals.

In this respect, ACER:

- a) Complements and coordinates the work of NRAs;
- b) Participates in the development of European network rules;
- c) Takes, under certain conditions, binding individual decisions on terms and conditions for access and operational security for cross-border infrastructure, on cross-border cost allocation for Projects of Common Interest and on terms and conditions or methodologies for the implementation of network codes;
- d) Gives advice on electricity and natural gas related issues to the European institutions;
- e) Monitors the internal markets in electricity and natural gas and reports on its findings; and

¹ Regulation (EU) No 2019/942 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 05 June 2019 (recast).

- f) Monitors trading in wholesale energy products to detect and deter market abuse and ensure the integrity and transparency of EU wholesale energy markets in accordance with REMIT i.e., Regulation (EU) No 1227/2011.

The main areas on which ACER's activities focus are:

- Supporting European market integration: this is mainly done through the development of common network and market rules, as well as through the coordination of regional initiatives which are concrete efforts from market participants to work towards greater integration;
- Advising the EU Institutions on trans-European energy infrastructure issues: ACER issues opinions on ten-year network development plans, to ensure that these are in line with priorities set at EU level, and on the draft lists of Projects of Common Interest; and
- Energy market monitoring: ACER has a general mission in terms of market monitoring at the EU level and has, since the end of 2011, a very specific responsibility when it comes to the oversight of wholesale energy trading referred to as surveillance.

Additional tasks have been assigned to ACER with the "Clean Energy for all Europeans" package legislation.

ACER currently employs more than 130 staff (statutory and non-statutory) and has an approved annual budget of € 30,770,880 in 2023. ACER's internal structure comprises five Departments: Electricity, Infrastructure Gas and Retail, Market Surveillance and Conduct, Market Information and Transparency, and Corporate Services. In addition, ACER comprises the Strategy Delivery and Communications Team (including the Brussels Liaison Office), the Legal Services Team, the Data Excellence cluster and the IT Strategy and Planning cluster (including the IT-Project Management Office).

Please find the ACER's organisational chart on the following link:

ACER is located in Ljubljana (Slovenia).

2. WE PROPOSE

ACER offers a dynamic and motivating workplace, where diversity is celebrated and where people's commitment and achievements contribute to build an organisation that is better than the sum of its parts. We strive towards becoming an innovative and engaging workplace, by committing continuously to invest in learning and development opportunities and by focusing on staff well-being and work-life balance.

We invest heavily in the professional development of staff, support a 'low on hierarchy, high on impact' organisational culture, prioritise personal relations and support an active constructive feedback culture, emphasising the positives whilst not shying away from addressing the negatives.

The Policy Officer - Market Conduct will become part of a diverse, young, and motivated team of approximately 30 people coming from 12 different Member States. They will have a possibility to develop their knowledge and competencies through both on-the-job and specialised training relative to their profile and benefit from the ACER's Mentoring Scheme. We are seeking to establish a reserve list for the position of Policy Officer - Market Conduct. The list may be used for any future vacancies in the similar field of work.

Overall Job purpose

The main purpose of the job is to coordinate NRAs on market manipulation and insider trading investigations, investigate and produce investigatory reports, produce Guidance on the definitions of market abuse, and verify the consistency in the application of the market abuse provisions under REMIT.

Main responsibilities

The duties of the Policy Officer - Market Conduct will include the following:

- Performing a set of tasks that aim at ensuring that NRAs carry out their tasks with respect to the market abuse prohibitions of REMIT in a coordinated and consistent way, in particular legal assessment of compliance with the requirements of REMIT. For instance, writing ACER Guidance on the application of REMIT and apply them in cases to provide feedback;
- Reviewing suspicious transactions reports and notifications from persons professionally arranging transactions (PPATs), NRAs, Financial Market Authorities (FMAs) and competition authorities providing reasonable grounds to suspect that acts in breach of REMIT are being, or have been, carried out;
- Referring cases and notifying suspected breaches of REMIT to NRAs or other relevant authorities for their review, investigation or enforcement, as appropriate (according to Articles 16 (1) and (3) of REMIT);
- Exercising the Agency's powers under Article 16(4) of REMIT, in particular by: requesting information to NRAs and analysing it, providing feedback; requesting NRAs to commence an investigation and following their reviews; establishing and coordinating cross-border investigatory groups;
- Producing assessments of market abuse cases brought forward by NRAs at e.g. enforcement stage and in particular report about the level of case consistency vis-à-vis REMIT and the ACER Guidance;
- Conduct investigations on behalf of the Agency on potential cases of market abuse;
- Producing and updating Guidance to the NRAs (According to Article 16 (1) of REMIT) on market abuse topics and on the application of provisions on market manipulation, attempted market manipulation, insider trading and/or a breach of other obligations or prohibitions under REMIT;
- Contributing to and organising meetings that promote the cooperation/coordination of NRAs and the exchange of best practices in REMIT case reviews/investigations/enforcement;
- Cooperating with PPATs, NRAs, ESMA, FMAs and, where appropriate, national competition authorities to ensure that a coordinated approach is taken to the enforcement of the relevant rules;
- Contributing to the development, maintenance and project management of the IT tools that are used by the Agency for the Market Conduct activities (namely the Notification Platform, the Case Management Tool and other business intelligence tools).

The Policy Officer - Market Conduct may be required to work in other areas of ACER, according to needs and priorities, as determined by the Head of the Department or the Director.

The jobholder will be required to act with a service culture, handling data with high confidentiality and professional integrity. Having good interpersonal and communication skills, the jobholder should be able to operate in multicultural working environments and liaise with different stakeholders.

The Agency strives to improve its working methods regularly and may change or shift certain tasks, therefore it is essential for the jobholder to be flexible, open to changes and has the capacity for adaptation to varying duties.

All staff working at ACER share the following core competencies:

- Cooperating: working with others towards achieving work goals;

- Delivering quality results: focusing on achieving results while applying relevant processes and procedures to meet quality standards;
- Communicating: sharing relevant information clearly and concisely, sharing useful information with others as appropriate;
