

ACER workshop on the launch of the updated Gas Target Model
Charlemagne Building of the European Commission, Jenkins Room
Rue de la Loi 170, B-1000 Brussels
Friday, 16 January 2015, 09:30-13:30

Agenda

09:00 – 09:30	Registration and coffee
09:30 – 10:00	1. Introduction
	Opening remarks	Alberto Pototschnig, ACER Director
	Workshop organisation IEM in gas – regulators´ strategic work	Walter Boltz, Chair of ACER Gas Working Group
	Completing the internal gas market	Florian Ermacora, Head of Unit B2 Wholesale markets, electricity & gas, DG Energy, European Commission
10:00 – 10:30	2. Security of supply and upstream competition
	Enhancing security of supply and upstream competition – GTM recommendations Q&A, discussion	Walter Boltz, Chair of ACER Gas Working Group
10:30 – 11:30	3. Wholesale market functioning
	Measuring the Status Quo and metrics – quantitative analysis	Nathan Macwhinnie, Ofgem
	Self-evaluation process and market integration tools - GTM recommendations Q&A, discussion	Francesco Cariello, AEEGSI
11:30 – 12:00	Coffee Break
12:00 – 12:30	4. Role of gas in complementing RES electricity generation
	Better coordination between electricity and gas - GTM recommendations Q&A, discussion	Johannes Heidelberg, BNetzA
12:30 – 13:00	5. New developments in the gas supply chain
	New developments in the gas supply chain – GTM recommendations Q&A, discussion	Dennis Hesseling, Head of ACER Gas Department
13:00 – 13:30	6. Conclusions and closing of the workshop
	Concluding remarks	Dennis Hesseling, Head of ACER Gas Department
13:30	Lunch	